FROM THE CHAPTER DIRECTOR'S DESK:

Hello everyone and Happy April.

Last month at our breakfast meeting, we had a great turn out. Joining Leigh & I were Doug Galloway, Karla & Ole' Olander, Lee Ann & Darrell Davidson, Jim Brown, Walt Charter, and Teresa & Marshall Throneberry. In addition, former Chapter O member Earl Beck and Dave Allen with his new to him Honda ST1300. The 50/50 tickets sales netted $70 and Jim Brown won the $35 prize. Our after breakfast took Dave Allen, Jim Brown, the Davidsons, Walt Charter, the Throneberrys, and myself headed east for Canyon Country, Bouquet Canyon Rd., then down to Acton and the La Cabana Restaurant. However, when we got to I-5, Dave peeled off north to Frazier Park to visit his son. The rest of us continued to Acton for a good Mexican Food lunch.

On Saturday March 20th, we had our monthly dinner ride. This month's destination was Tony's Restaurant in Carpinteria. We had 10 participants, 5 arrived by car and 5 by bike. Those in attendance were: Bruce & Karla Olander, Dan Baughman & Cynthia Leyva, Chuck & Leigh Burton, Darrell & Lee Ann Davidson, Jim Brown, and Doug Galloway. The ride to Carpinteria took us up the Ventura River valley, past Lake Casitas, and over the pass to the coast. Springtime sure has the hills green and the wild flowers are out.

Now that spring is here, we all have some rides to look forward to. The next GWTA So. Cal. Ride is Chapter Q's Poker Run on Saturday April 24th. Next will be our very own Straw-O-Berry Ride on Saturday May 15th. Please get your donated door prizes into either Dan or me by May 10th. That way we'll know how many prizes to buy. Choose a gift that you would like to receive. I rather have a few good gifts that a lot of "white elephants."

Also, on Friday May 14th, the strawberry cut up party will be at our house at 6 pm. So, come over and join the party as we prepare the strawberries for the next day's ride. Afterward, we'll go find some pizza.

So until next time, Ride Safe!

Chuck & Leigh
